Susan Strange States And Markets Pdf Download

Her analysis in States and Markets (1988) focused on what she called "the connection between the market and power", that is, fluctuation power between market and politics. Although it has often been used as an illustration to explain and limit the operation of markets, in this context it has often been used to show how markets can have a large impact on politics. Like other market studies, her analysis also focused on how markets and power are interrelated and complement each other. She especially believed that the market could be an instrument of political power, in such a way that it could serve as an agent of power.
